

BLACKPOOL ACCOMMODATION FOR GAYS

CODE OF PRACTICE

Members should:-

1. Actively support the aims of the Constitution.
2. Comply with this Code of Practice, the Constitution and the Complaints Procedures.
3. Settle, by the due date, any fees levied by the Association.
4. Comply with all current legislation and provide reputable standards of guest accommodation and service.
(The committee may request to re-inspect the member premises prior to annual renewal to ensure this)
5. Ensure that the Association is not brought into disrepute.
6. Ensure advertising is of a non-offensive nature and non-detrimental to fellow members.
7. Ensure all postings to the BAGs' email site are respectful to other members. Personal attacks and any unsubstantiated accusations regarding other members, either directly or by insinuation, may result in removal from the site.
8. Ensure all messages and documents etc which have been distributed via any BAGs medium, and are not for public display, are kept confidential and NOT distributed or discussed outside of the current BAGs Group Membership.
